EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

BAD THOUGHTS, THE DANGEROUS THIEVES: We often associate thieves with physical theft — stealing material possessions, money or even personal information. But what about the thief that robs us of our own happiness, self-esteem and potential? This cunning predator is none other than bad thoughts — the most dangerous thieves of all. They rob us of our peace of mind, causing us to question our worth, abilities and the world around us. They sow seeds of self-doubt, fear and anxiety, preventing us from reaching our full potential.

Take the example of a talented artist who constantly doubts his skills, fearing they will never achieve success. This fear holds him back, preventing him from sharing his gift with the world. Similarly, a brilliant scientist who doubts his intelligence may never discover ground-breaking research, as he is paralysed by the fear of failure.

Bad thoughts are not just confined to personal ambitions; they also encroach upon our relationships. A person plagued by negative thoughts may struggle to trust others, fearing betrayal and rejection. This fear leads to isolation, as they push away those who truly care for them. Additionally, bad thoughts can breed resentment and bitterness, tarnishing our capacity for love and empathy.

The true danger of bad thoughts lies in their subtlety. They often go unnoticed, as we mistake them for mere concerns or rational doubts. However, when left unchecked, these thoughts can become a self-fulfiling prophecy, preventing us from achieving our goals and creating a life of happiness and fulfilment.

So, how do we combat this insidious thief? The first step is awareness — recognising when negative thoughts enter our minds. Once identified, we can challenge these thoughts with evidence-based counter-arguments, replacing them with positive affirmations and self-compassion.

Bad thoughts are the most dangerous thieves of all, as they rob us of our happiness, self-esteem and potential. By increasing our awareness and challenging these thoughts, we can reclaim our power and create a life of fulfilment, love and success. The content/programs from media — television, mobile, cinema or newspapers have the power to weave a story in our minds. Unless we are alert, it may wreak havoc in our minds. Like an ever-vigilant and circumspect soldier who guards our borders, patrols our coastlines and protects our airspace to keep India safe and secure, we too have to guard our minds from the most dangerous of enemies, bad thoughts. *—T.S. Man punches 327 balloons to break record

Idaho: A man with more than 181 Guinness World Records added another title to his name by donning boxing gloves and punching balloons.

David Rush, aka Record Breaker Rush on YouTube, said the first time he looked up the record for the most balloons burst with boxing gloves in one minute, it stood at 33.

"It took 60 times longer to set them up than to pop them, so I had to make the official attempt count," Rush said. He said the total increased to 37 while he was training for the record, and had increased yet again to 68 just before he made his official attempt.

He ended up demolishing the record by managing to pop 327 balloons with his punches.

Farmers grow world's heaviest plum

Johannesburg: A pair of South African farmers harvesting their crops made a startling discovery: a record-breaking plum weighing in at 16.3 ounces.

Dean and Deon Barnard, owners of the Oppie Plaas Boerdery farm, said they never set out to break records with their plums.

"It hasn't been bred to set records. The record plum came off a commercial tree with about 150 plums on it. I didn't do any special preparations to get it this big," Dean Barnard told Guinness World Records.

The plum is 3.8 ounces heavier than the previous one, which was grown in Japan in 2021.

"Our area has a lot of very unique microclimates and that helps the plums a lot. We do soil samples yearly and then put into the soil what is needed. I also have a top plum specialist to help us with production and quality," Dean Barnard said.

CM's wife seeks 13 sites; MUDA gives 14!

Revenue documents ready in just one day following CM's Private Secretary's application

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (RK&BCT)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife, B.M. Parvathi, requested 13 sites in exchange for her 3.16-acre land in Kesare. Yet, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) officials went beyond the request, handing over 14 prime sites in the upscale Vijayanagar locality. This blatant overreach highlights how officials bend the rules to favour the influential.

When ordinary citizens apply for the registration of their legally acquired properties, khatas, revenue documents and other official records, MUDA officials consistently delay and often take months or even years to process these requests.

In stark contrast, the same officials rapidly expedite the registration of high-value sites worth crores of rupees for influential personalities and politically powerful individuals, issuing revenue documents within a single day for applications submitted by their representatives.

Following a request by Parvathi, wife of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, pointing out that MUDA utilised 3.16 acres of her land in Survey No. 464 of Kesare village, Mysuru Taluk, for developing Devanur Third Stage without proper acquisition procedures, MUDA sanctioned 14 sites measuring 50x80 ft each in Vijayanagar Third Stage and Fourth Stage at a 50:50 ratio.

In response to this allocation and based on complaints from social activists, the Karnataka Governor has approved prosecution against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah. Siddaramaiah has contested this order by appealing to the Karnataka High Court, which has now reserved its judgement.

Close aide signs and applies

On Jan. 14, 2022, S.G. Dinesh Kumar, alias C.T. Kumar, Private Secretary to Siddaramaiah, submitted an application to the MUDA Commissioner. The application sought Khata registration and the issuance of revenue documents for several sites, including Vijayanagar Stage 3 C, D, E, and G Blocks, with site numbers 25, 331, 332, 213, 214, 215, and 05, as well as Stage 4, 2nd Phase sites numbered 5108, 5085, 11189, 10855, 12065 and 12068.

Non-functional traffic signals, women's security discussed at MGP meeting

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (SPN&DM)- The Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) addressed several pressing issues affecting the city at the recent monthly meeting held at its office on Vivekananda Road in Yadavagiri.

Members brought attention to a report from Star of Mysore that highlighted the dysfunctional traffic signals. ASI Murali from the V.V. Puram Traffic Police Station informed that the maintenance of traffic signals across Mysuru had been outsourced to a private firm.

However, due to the firm's negligence, several signals have become non-functional. He assured the attendees that the issue had been reported to higher authorities and would soon be resolved.

Regarding concerns about traffic Policemen using cell phones while on duty, the Police clarified that officers are not permitted to engage with their phones during duty hours. They further added that any written complaints on the matter would be addressed, with senior officers ensuring action against those found guilty of dereliction of duty.

Footpath encroachment

When an MGP member raised concerns about the encroachment of footpaths on prominent roads and junctions by street vendors, V.V. Puram Inspector Vivekananda clarified that the Police are not responsible for dealing with footpath encroachments. He advised that the issue should be directed to the MCC Commissioner.

Inspector Vivekananda pointed out that the MCC has issued licences to street vendors under specific conditions and that it is the MCC's responsibility to manage and clear such encroachments. The Police, he added, are only involved in providing security during encroachment clearance drives.

Need for creating public awareness

In response to questions about rising crimes, traffic violations, and other issues, the Police emphasised the urgent need for widespread public awareness on online fraud, cyber crimes and fake property records and transactions.

MGP member Vasu highlighted that traffic problems are causing delays for school children and severe inconveniences for the working class and Government employees. He pointed out the issue of haphazard vehicle parking along roads and traffic junctions, which disrupts smooth traffic flow.

Security of women

Bhanu Prashanth raised concerns about security of women in Paying Guest (PG) accommodations. Noting that there are over 120 girls' PG accommodations in Saraswathipuram alone, she requested that the Police organise a meeting with PG owners to discuss improving security and safety for residents.

In response, the Police assured that they are committed to providing security for women but noted that they cannot intervene in every situation. They suggested that MCC authorities should inspect PG accommodations to ensure compliance with safety and security regulations.

MGP members Dr. Renu Agarwal, Srishaila Ramannavar, Shobha Sambashivam, Joseph, M.R. Onkaraiah, KVK Naidu, P. Rakesh, B.S. Somashekar, Manohar, G. Sridhar, Venkatesh, M. Anjum and V.S. Sethuram were present at the meeting.

Why do senior Police Officers often delegate responsibility to juniors?

Mysuru, Sept. 14- Despite the persistent efforts of the Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP), senior officers in the Police Department often do not make time to engage with the public, said MGP Founding President Dr. Bhamy V. Shenoy.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, he said that in earlier years, committed Officers like the much-admired H.R. Kasturirangan (who served as City Police Commissioner from Dec. 28, 1992 to May 6, 1995) would regularly attend MGP meetings.

Today, however, when MGP invites senior officials, they frequently delegate the responsibility to junior officers, who can only promise to pass on concerns to their superiors. But do they?

If high-ranking officials like the Police Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP) attended these meetings, they could take decisive and provide action-oriented responses.

Senior officers have the authority to implement changes, whereas junior officers often lack the power and are not encouraged to critique the system or offer solutions, he opined.

However, one promising development is that DCP (Crime and Traffic) S. Jahnavi has agreed to attend the next MGP meeting, he added.

Tent school for Mahouts' kids

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (MTY&DM)- The temporary school, popularly known as Tent School, set up by the Department of Public Instruction to ensure that the children of Mahouts and Kavadis of Dasara elephants who camp for nearly 2 months for the grand annual festival, receive uninterrupted education during their stay in the city, has begun on a full scale in the Palace premises.

The school has 25 children of Mahouts and Kavadis. M.D. Srikantaswamy has been the Block Resource Coordinator (BRC) while S.K. Manjula has been functioning as the Nodal Officer for the school, which is functioning under the guidance of Deputy Director of Public Instruction (DDPI) Javaregowda and Block Education Officer (South) C.N. Raju. Classes are being held from 1st to 10th standards, with Noor Fathima as the Head Mistress and Mouseen Taj and Divya Priyadarshini as teachers.

The children are being taught under Nali-Kali model with a conducive atmosphere for learning.

International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) is providing free meals to the children. The classes are conducted from 9.45 am to 3.30 pm daily.

Priest who performs puja to Ambari elephant felicitated

Mysuru, Sept.14 (BLU&DM)- Priest Prahlad Rao, who has been performing puja to Ambari elephant for the past 27 years during Dasara, was felicitated by the Mysuru District Madivala Association at a programme held at Jaladarshini Guest House here on Thursday.

Speaking after being felicitated, Prahlad Rao said that he has been performing Gajanana Puja and other rituals to the Ambari elephant praying to Goddess Chamundeshwari for the past several years.

Thus far, all Dasara rituals have taken place successfully without any hurdles with the blessings of Goddess Chamundeshwari, he added.

He appealed the Government to construct a memorial for Dasara Howdah carrying elephant Arjuna who passed away late last year.

Former MUDA Chairman and Congress leader H.V. Rajeev, former Mayors Purushotham and Ananta, District Madiwala Association President Singri Shetty, Office-bearers Hanur Nagaraj, B.G. Keshav, Kiran, Manju Shetty, Mahesh, Sriram, Venkatesh and others were present during the occasion.

VOICE OF THE READER

Replace missing slabs, tiles on footpaths

Sir,

This is to highlight the deplorable condition of footpaths in the City of Palaces, a destination that attracts countless tourists.

Many footpaths are either occupied by vendors — a problem not unique to Mysuru — or pose serious safety hazards due to uneven slabs or missing covers over the drains underneath (as seen in the recent image taken on Sayyaji Rao Road, near K.R. Hospital compound).

Unfortunately, such scenes are common across several prime areas in the heart of the city. With Dasara fast approaching — a time when thousands of tourists from across the country and abroad visit, especially on Jumboo Savari Day — these dangerous footpaths reflect poorly on the city's image. There's also a real risk of people falling into these open pits and getting injured.

Therefore, the authorities are urged to take immediate action to fix these gaps, at least in the city centre, and ensure the footpaths are safe for pedestrians.

Ex-MUDA Commissioner's suspension revoked quietly!

Government fears that Dinesh Kumar's suspension could be used in Courts as evidence of a scam

Dinesh Kumar

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (DM)- In a surprising turn of events, the State Government has quietly lifted the suspension of former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, who was suspended on Sept. 2 for his alleged involvement in illegal allotment of 50:50 ratio sites and other irregularities.

However, the Government has not disclosed when the suspension was revoked or the new position Dinesh Kumar has been assigned following the withdrawal of his suspension.

After Dinesh Kumar's suspension, the Opposition fiercely attacked the Government, accusing it of implicitly admitting to the scam in which 14 sites were allotted to CM Siddaramaiah's wife, B.M. Parvathi, under the 50:50 alternative site allotment plan.

The withdrawal of Dinesh Kumar's suspension surfaced during a High Court hearing on Sept. 12 concerning a petition filed by CM Siddaramaiah. The petition challenges the Governor's sanction to prosecute him in the MUDA scam.

High Court informed

Advocate-General (AG) Shashikiran Shetty informed the Court that the Government had revoked the suspension of Dinesh Kumar.

Senior Counsel Raghavan, representing petitioner Snehamayi Krishna, who had sought the Governor's sanction to prosecute the CM, argued that by suspending Dinesh Kumar on Sept. 2, the Government had effectively acknowledged the illegal allotment of MUDA sites to the CM's wife.

Senior Advocate Prof. Raviverma Kumar, on behalf of the CM, argued that Dinesh Kumar's suspension was unrelated to the allotment of sites. He stated that the former MUDA Commissioner was suspended for other reasons, and the Government revoked the suspension after determining that Dinesh Kumar had no involvement in the case.

Shashikiran Shetty supported Raviverma Kumar's claim, confirming that the suspension order was withdrawn as it was not connected to the site allotment issue.

When Justice Nagaprasanna inquired if all concerned parties had been informed of the withdrawal, Shetty assured the Court that they had.

Fear of legal repercussions

The Government's Sept. 2 order suspending Dinesh Kumar, who had recently been posted as Haveri University Registrar, became a source of embarrassment for the administration.

The suspension provided ammunition for the Opposition, which accused the Siddaramaiah Government of admitting to the MUDA scam, where 14 sites were allegedly allotted illegally to the CM's wife.

Fearing that the suspension could be used as evidence of the scam by the advocates representing petitioner Snehamayi Krishna, the State Government, through Shashikiran Shetty, informed the High Court that Dinesh Kumar's suspension had been withdrawn.

The Government contended that his suspension had no connection to the MUDA scam, which allegedly took place during his tenure as MUDA Commissioner, sources indicated.

Hold MUDA meetings: CREDAI

CREDAI, Mysuru Centre, President D. Srihari (centre) addressing the press meet in city yesterday as CREDAI office-bearers K.N. Ravishankar, Muralidhar, Harish Shenoy and Madhu look on.

Mysuru, Sept.14 (GA&DM)- As the MUDA scam continues to unravel more irregularities, the Confederation of Real Estate Developers Associations of India (CREDAI), Mysuru Centre, has issued a stern warning, threatening to move the Court if the temporary ban on MUDA's general meetings is not lifted.

Addressing a press meet yesterday, CREDAI Mysuru President D. Srihari expressed deep concern over the ban, stating that it has severely hampered the development of layouts, causing significant inconvenience to the public and developers.

He emphasised that, according to Urban Development Department norms, MUDA general meetings should be held monthly. However, these meetings have been suspended for over three months following uncovering of large-scale alternative site allotment scam, disrupting the work of land developers and delaying site allotments for buyers.

Srihari clarified that, aside from the sites under investigation, all other layouts under MUDA's jurisdiction, as well as private layouts approved by MUDA and other competent authorities, are fully compliant with legal procedures.

He pointed out that private developers adhere to stringent legal processes, consulting expert lawyers, reviewing decades-old land records, obtaining necessary approvals from various departments, and ensuring all dues are cleared before acquiring land for residential developments. Additionally, buyers take extra precautions by conducting thorough legal checks to ensure all transactions are legitimate.

"In this context, the focus should not solely be on the alleged illegal site allotment," Srihari said. "The Urban Development Department should also prioritise approving new layouts and housing projects, releasing sites in ongoing developments, and clearing remaining sites in completed projects that have obtained NOCs."

Urging the Government to resume MUDA general meetings as per standard practice, he said that prompt action would help boost investments in Mysuru's rapidly growing residential, industrial and commercial sectors.

High Court provides relief to original MUDA site owner

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (DM)- In a fresh twist to MUDA scam, a man who legally purchased a MUDA site from the original allottee, who had been compensated by MUDA with one-third of the land on the grounds that the remaining land was not acquired, has secured relief from the High Court.

Case details

Devaiah and Chikkadevaiah, owners of a parcel of land in Sathagalli, had mutually agreed to give away 1.12 acres of land under Sathagalli Sy. No. 37/1 to MUDA at a rate of Rs. 20,000 per acre. The land was officially handed over to MUDA on Feb. 12, 1986.

However, two women, Puttamalli and Manchamma, later filed a petition claiming a share of compensation, naming Devaiah, Chikkadevaiah and MUDA as respondents in the case.

The Munsiff Court, which heard the case, stayed the payment of compensation, a fact disclosed by MUDA on Sept. 3, 2018, in response to an RTI application. The order indicated that the land acquisition was complete, with only compensation payment remaining pending.

Subsequently, MUDA developed the Sathagalli First Stage Layout on the land and distributed sites. Meanwhile, Srinivas from K.G. Koppal entered into a mutual agreement with MUDA, offering 4 acres of land in Sathagalli Survey No. 29.

In return, MUDA allotted Site No. 315 in Sathagalli First Stage to Srinivas, and the site was registered in his name at the MUDA Sub-Registrar's Office on Jan. 25, 2003, through a sale deed. The Khata Registration and Revenue entries were completed at MUDA on Feb. 10 of the same year.

After securing the records for his allotted site, Srinivas sold the site to Riyaz Pasha of Kalyanagiri on June 30, 2003. The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) subsequently registered the Khata in Riyaz Pasha's name on Oct. 10, 2003.

Several years later, when Riyaz Pasha planned to build a house on site, he was shocked to discover that someone else claimed to have purchased the site from one Shylaja. Disturbed by this revelation, Pasha filed an RTI application to obtain records related to his site from MUDA.

MUDA magic

In a meeting held on May 28, 2005, MUDA decided to return one-third of the land to Chikkadevaiah and Maraiah after it was discovered that MUDA had developed a layout on land under Sathagalli Survey No. 37/1 without properly acquiring it.

During a subsequent meeting on Dec. 24, 2011, MUDA resolved to divide the land under Survey No. 37/1, creating a new Survey No. 37/5. A resolution was passed to approve a map for the formation of 13 sites on 17 guntas of land in the new survey number. The map approval for these 13 sites was granted on April 9, 2012.

However, according to RTI information obtained by Pasha, Site No. 315, which MUDA had allocated to Srinivas from K.G. Koppal, was situated on the same land approved for the formation of the 13 sites. Despite multiple visits to MUDA by Pasha seeking resolution, no progress was made.

Unable to find a solution, Pasha filed a petition in the High Court last year. The Court ruled that Site No. 315, which MUDA sanctioned to Srinivas and was later sold to Riyaz Pasha, was legally valid and in order.

The Court's ruling has provided relief to Pasha, who had been distressed over the ownership issues related to his site. The judgement affirmed that the site rightfully belonged to Pasha, who had legally purchased it from Srinivas with clear documentation.

Stop the farce & spare the children

The Karnataka Government wants to celebrate 'International Day of Democracy' tomorrow by forming the 'Longest Human Chain.' They want 25 lakh people from Bidar to Chamarajanagar to hold hands and form a 2,500-kilometre-long human chain.

But why? According to the Government, 'to promote democratic values.'

Last year too, they celebrated the event with a small human chain around Vidhana Soudha as Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, along with several Cabinet Ministers, stood on the steps of Vidhana Soudha and recited the Preamble to the Constitution of India.

Here is the kicker. This event to celebrate 'democratic values' was co-sponsored by the Backward Classes Welfare Department and Tribal Welfare Department.

The same Department under which comes the 'Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation.'

The very Corporation responsible for the now infamous 'Valmiki Scam,' where over Rs. 100 crore earmarked for tribal development was stolen!

What a tragedy it is when Cabinet Ministers stand on the steps of Vidhana Soudha, a place meant to do people's work and recite the Preamble under a large engraving that reads 'Government's work is God's work' with money given by a Department that stole from the people! Wah! Bhai Wah!

It's like a cigarette company sponsoring a health camp and the cigarette company's Board of Directors stand up at the inauguration of the camp and pledge to protect public health.

The Government wants to bring about awareness of 'democratic values' by reciting the Preamble which states that the law-makers should secure to all its citizens JUSTICE, LIBERTY, EQUALITY and FRATERNITY assuring dignity of the individual and the unity of the Nation.

But what have our leaders done? They have secured to all its citizens selective Justice based on 'jathi' (caste); opportunistic Liberty depending on the vote bank; a lopsided sense of Equality by stealing from Peter (tax-payer) to pay Paul (corrupt voter); and created a fragile sense of Fraternity as an MP from the present Government says he wants to break away from the Indian Union!

That is why this awareness campaign on 'democratic values' is a farce, but why should the children suffer?

We are sure the Government schools will force the children to show up and hold hands to make sure this 'longest human chain' is a success. It not fair to children or the parents.

Awareness rallies organised by both Government and private organisations generally are not effective and they are a nuisance to both school children and the public.

Children should not be taken out of school to participate in awareness rallies as it interrupts their learning process, especially if there is inappropriate exposure. Some awareness rallies may involve complex or controversial topics that children may not fully understand.

To add, not all parents may agree with the cause or message of a particular rally. By taking children out of school for these events, schools or organisations may impose certain viewpoints on young impressionable minds without parental consent.

Rallies, especially large-scale or politically charged ones, can sometimes become chaotic or unsafe. Children may not be equipped to handle these situations and their safety could be compromised.

Children are made to walk on the main roads holding placards that are illegible while inhaling harmful vehicle fumes and battling the sun.

Also, rallies have become a traffic nuisance. The public cannot read the placards, as they are busy navigating around them nor can they hear the slogans as they are honking at them to move.

Overall, awareness rallies are not very effective in bringing about awareness. If at all it does bring awareness, it's the awareness that awareness rallies on main roads seldom bring awareness.

Instead of pulling children out of school, educators can incorporate awareness topics into the curriculum, fostering a deeper understanding of social issues in a controlled and safe environment.

Maybe the Women and Child Development Department should ban schools from using children as publicity tools.

Even the now popular 'awareness marathons' are a farce. For the most part, it begins as a marathon, then turns into a jog-a-thon, then a walk-a-thon and finally an 'eat-a-thon' as they head out for an unhealthy breakfast. Then they forget it.

Does anyone remember the 'Ice Bucket Challenge'? What was that disease again? Does anyone remember the 'Pink Chaddi' campaign... What was the outcome?

So, maybe it's time we re-thought the effectiveness of our one-hour walkathons, random 'innovative' protests and awareness rallies that are a traffic nuisance which put our children in danger.

To truly do public service, we must first stop obsessing about publicity. Good publicity will always follow sincere public service.

As for tomorrow's programme to promote 'democratic values,' by forming the 'Longest Human Chain,' we hope the Government will also stop corruption, our 'Longest Human Pain.'

CM's wife seeks 13 sites

This request followed the registration of Sale Deeds for these sites on Jan. 13, 2022, making it crucial to finalise the Khata registration and provide the necessary revenue documents.

13 sites sought; 14 granted

The MUDA Special Tahsildar, after considering the application submitted by Kumar, set the annual tax for each site at Rs. 2,160, cess at Rs. 562 and Khata fee at Rs. 200, totalling Rs. 2,922.

Although Kumar had requested Khata registration for 13 sites, MUDA officials expedited the registration for 14 sites within six days and issued the revenue documents in a single day.

On Aug. 18, 2014, C.T. Kumar formally signed MUDA records and accepted the 'notice' issued by the MUDA Commissioner to Parvathi regarding the allocation of sites. He also signed the office copy for MUDA's official files.

Parvathi had sought alternative land, as her 3.16 acres of land in Survey No. 464 at Kesare had been excluded from the land acquisition process through Government denotification.

Technical Department unaware!

Although the final notification for the land was issued on Aug. 20, 1997, the Government issued a notification on May 18, 1998, removing the land from the acquisition process. However, since the denotification process was not brought to the attention of MUDA's Technical Department, the 'notice' stated that MUDA had developed the land in its entirety.

"Since MUDA does not have available land to provide parallel sites as requested, MUDA will either determine the market value of your land and provide cash compensation or offer sites developed at a 60:40 ratio in nearby layouts," stated the 'notice' issued by the MUDA Commissioner. In the same notice, the Commissioner also asked Parvathi to immediately provide her clear opinion on this matter.

Records clearly reveal that Kumar, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's Private Secretary, and K.C. Umesh, the MUDA First Division Assistant, were actively involved at every stage of the processes concerning Parvathi's land and site allocations.

Govt's 2020 directive

Local Bodies barred from directly acquiring agricultural land

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (RK & BCT)- On Sept. 30, 2020, the State Government issued a circular instructing all Local Bodies including Urban Development Authorities and Planning Authorities not to directly acquire agricultural land from landowners.

The circular, issued by then Under Secretary C.S. Shivakumaraswamy of the Urban Development Department, stated that it is not appropriate from a planning perspective for local bodies and Urban Development Authorities to directly acquire agricultural land for road development without converting the land and obtaining design approval.

In unavoidable circumstances, local bodies must acquire land through a Relinquishment Deed after obtaining the technical opinions from Assistant Directors of Urban Development Authorities and Planning Authorities and after the district authorities issue a notification under the Revenue Act.

Even if landowners agree, the circular clarifies that a Relinquishment Deed cannot be executed without the Deputy Commissioner's permission.

Despite these clear instructions, MUDA officials flagrantly disregarded Government orders, orchestrating large-scale corruption. They illegally distributed sites on a 50:50 ratio, registering relinquishment deeds for agricultural land and acquiring it, thus perpetrating a massive fraud.

Bus shelters for advertisements

Ramesh submitted the complaint under Section 223 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, claiming that during Siddaramaiah's previous tenure as CM from 2013-2018, the State Government misused 493 bus shelters owned by BBMP to promote the achievements of the Government without paying the requisite fee of Rs. 68.14 crore to BBMP.

The complaint alleges that despite prior petitions filed with the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) and the Lokayukta, which were supported by records, the Government used these bus shelters for promotional activities between 2015 and 2017 without paying any advertisement fees.

Ramesh highlighted BBMP's limited revenue sources, such as property taxes, map approval fees, trade licence fees, road digging fees and advertisement fees, while the civic body bears an annual expenditure of Rs. 10,000 crore for employee salaries and infrastructure maintenance.

He further stated that the BBMP, through its Special Commissioner (Finance), had issued a 'Demand Notice' on July 5, 2017, to the Siddaramaiah-led Government, demanding Rs 12.98 crore in unpaid fees. However, this notice was ignored.

Pressure on Lokayukta Police

Ramesh also alleged that after Siddaramaiah resumed office as CM, he exerted influence on the Lokayukta Police, leading to the quiet closure of the Rs. 68.14 crore 'advertisement fee scam' case on July 26, 2024, without any formal notification.

Despite providing complete records of the alleged scam, the Lokayukta Police, under pressure, closed the case, he claimed. As a result, Ramesh filed a private complaint in the Special Court for People's Representatives, seeking an order for investigation against Siddaramaiah and the other accused.

The complaint, formally registered as a Private Complaint Register (PCR), seeks a Court-directed investigation.

63rd Heritage Music Festival at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal

A captivating concert

Vidu. Spoorthi Rao presenting a Vocal Concert at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal, VV Mohalla, last evening as part of the 63rd Heritage Music Festival organised by Sri Prasanna Vidya Ganapathi Mandali Charitable (SPVGMC) Trust, Mysuru. She is accompanied by Vid. H.N. Bhaskar on violin, Vid. Adamya Ramanand on mridanga and Vid. Shamith Gowda on ghata.

On Sept. 13, young vocalist from Bengaluru, Vidu. Spoorthi Rao, sang for SPVGMC Trust accompanied by Vid. H.N. Bhaskar on violin, Vid. Adamya Ramanand on mridanga and Vid. Shamith Gowda on ghata.

Spoorthi has made a remarkable progress over the recent years. On Friday, she proved yet again that she is a skilled vocalist. She opened the concert with the popular Bhairavi varna 'Veeri bONi' by Pacchamiriyam Adiappayya. An experienced artiste that she is, surprisingly, the charana suffered tala in the second ettugade swara.

The same was observed in the following composition too 'MahAgaNapatim' in NAta by Dikshitar wherein instead of applying the Ekatala she sang the kriti in Adi tAla, which she realised and corrected only at the time of swarakalpana at the end of the composition rendition. But after this, the girl was careful not to make more mistakes.

Spoorthi excels in developing neraval and kalpana swaras. 'Sri Tyagaraja's 'Bantureeti kolu' saw an extensive neraval at 'RAmanAmamanu vara khadgamivi' especially in the melkalam that gained appreciation from the audience.

Spoorthi's selection of compositions for the evening was adequate. She did not choose to sing too many compositions but she tried to do justice to what she sang, elaborating two main compositions — one in TOdi 'RAjuvadale jUtA murArE' which is composed on Lord Ranganatha describing him on procession adorned with radiant divine ornaments studded with precious stones on the bank of the river Kaveri in Srirangam as all the kings serve him.

Spoorthi's selection of the line 'kAveri teeramunu' was apt. She elaborated the sahitya wonderfully well, following it with intelligent, breath-taking swaras.

Senior violinist Bhaskar's smiling encouragement to the young artiste throughout was notable.

After a racy filler 'NenarunchinAnu' by Sri tyagaraja in MAlavi in challenging speed, Spoorthi took the other main item — an RTP in Shubha Pantuvarali. This was welcome as no artiste had sung this raga here so far in this season. The Raga delineation was excellent with even a grahabeda at 'n' for Mohana and clear flowing gamakas, reminding the listener of her Guru Gayatri, especially in the higher notes. The tanam, both by the vocalist and on the violin, was outstanding, unleashing a variety of techniques. The sahitya chosen for the pallavi was 'Satya JnyAnAnandamayam Sarvam VishNumayam,' a line from the well-known composition of Muthuswami Dikshitar 'Sri SatyanArAyaNam.' The pallavi, set to Adi tAlam in two kalai, was executed in style with ragamalika swaras in Vasanti, Charukeshi, Mohana. The skill with which she handled Mohana and VAsanti (which are different only in daivata) was appreciative.

Adamya Ramanand, son of well-known Veena artiste Geeta Ramanand and disciple of Umayalpuram Sivaraman, together with Shamith Gowda from Mysuru, combined well to present a tani replete with trishra and chaturashra nadais. It was good to watch the senior who was present, beam with joy at her son's performance. The end-pieces of the concert included a popular devaranama 'BAro KrishNayya' by Kanakadasaru and a Lalgudi tillana in Mand.

Following a formal programme at Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple premises, the idols were taken in a procession for mass immersion through D. Devaraja Urs Road to Srirangapatna.

MLA T.S. Srivatsa, Hindu Jagaran Vedike leader Lohit Urs, Dharmik Pratishtana's Charan, Rudramurthy, Chetan, Manjunath, BJP leaders and hundreds of pro-Hindu activists took part in the procession.

'Symbol of harmony'

The mass immersion of Ganesha idols is a symbol of harmony, with the Lord sending a message of unity. India is the country that united the world, without resorting to bombing and threatening with a gun. Now, India has emerged as a country that lends a helping hand to other nations, true to the phrase 'World is A Family.' India is the only country, that represents religious equality. Wishing good for others and living among all, is the true meaning of religion, which is practiced in Hindu religion, true to the message of Lord Ganesha.

Sudha Murty allays fears on AI, robots hitting jobs

UoM Prasaranga's Kannada Encyclopaedia 10th and 13th volumes released

Rajya Sabha MP Sudha Murty seen holding a copy of the revised Kannada encyclopaedia, after handing over the copy to former Director of Prasaranga K.T. Veerappa (fourth from left) at Crawford Hall in Mysuru this morning as University of Mysore Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath, Registrar V.R. Shylaja, Director of Kuvempu Institute for Kannada Studies (KIKS) Prof. N.K. Lolakshi and others look on.

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (BLU&BS)- The revised editions of 10th and 13th volumes of Kannada Encyclopaedia, published by Prasaranga, the publication division of University of Mysore (UoM), was released by Rajya Sabha Member Sudha Murty at Senate Hall in Crawford Hall here this morning.

The first copy of the revised volumes of encyclopaedia was presented to K.T. Veerappa, former Director of Prasaranga. Sudha Murty touched the feet of Veerappa, who during his 16-year stint at Prasaranga, had enormously contributed to Kannada literature.

Later participating in the interaction organised with the gathering, Sudha Murty, also an author of several novels, shared her views on the questions posed to her.

Like computer...

To a relevant question on the growing fad for Artificial Intelligence (AI), robots and other new age technologies, that have sparked the fears of affecting jobs in the future, Sudha Murty recalled that there were similar apprehensions when computers hit the market.

The least a computer can do is programming, but doesn't have any heart like a human being. But, it is too early to elaborate further on AI, with the study still on about its future consequences, added Sudha Murty.

Hubby must support wife

She also felt that every husband should support his wife's success. A woman handles various roles, juggling between home and office. Whenever somebody speaks in negative, we should not lose heart, but have to move on.

Social media

"Social media has both good and bad qualities. Some had predicted on social media that I would become the President of India," said Sudha Murty.

The hard work requires skill to succeed, irrespective of possessing various degrees. We should never compare our children with others, she said in her advise to the parents.

About Infosys

"When Infosys was started, we did not have any political influence, except for hardwork that came in handy," said Sudha Murty, underlining the message to the gathering.

Gen next

English, as a language has multiple advantages, but we should never forget Kannada. It is said that, the next generation will resort to free life, without a caring a hoot for elders. We should not bother about whatever the people say. It is only the parents who should be integral to us, advised Sudha Murty.

UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath and Registrar V.R. Shylaja were present.

Violence during Ganesha idols procession

Normalcy returns to Nagamangala town

Prohibitory orders to end at midnight

Nagamangala, Sept. 14 (MR& BS)- Normalcy has returned to Nagamangala town which witnessed violence during the Ganesha idols procession on Sept. 11.

Commercial establishments, which had remained closed for two days, fully reopened today, along with schools and colleges, under tight Police security. Prohibitory orders, however, will remain in place until midnight on Sept. 14 (today).

A peace meeting involving leaders from both communities took place today ahead of Eid-Milad festival on Monday (Sept. 16). Mandya District Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy, who is also the Nagamangala MLA, chaired the meeting.

Yesterday, Diwakar, one of the 52 individuals arrested in connection with the violence, was taken to Kyatamaranahalli in Mysuru to attend his father-in-law's funeral, after the Police secured Court's permission. He was later shifted to jail after the funeral.

Diwakar's wife has blamed the Police for her father's death, stating that he suffered shock following her husband's arrest. She claimed the Police had assured that Diwakar would be released if he was not caught on video during the violence, but he was jailed regardless.

Meanwhile, Bajrang Sene State President Manjunath criticised the Police for prohibiting the Ganesha idols processions after the violence.

He also condemned the restrictions on drums, DJs and the directive to immerse Ganesha idols before Eid-Milad, accusing the Congress Government of hurting Hindu sentiments.

Pro-Hindu outfits form human chain

Srirangapatna, Sept.14- Activists from pro-Hindu organisations staged a human chain protest in Srirangapatna on Friday, condemning the violence that erupted during the Ganesha idol procession in Nagamangala.

The protest took place at Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Circle near the Taluk Office, where activists expressed their outrage at the miscreants responsible for the disturbance.

They alleged that youths from a particular community raised provocative slogans during the Ganesha procession and escalated the situation by throwing petrol bombs, brandishing swords, and setting shops on fire.

The protesters also criticised the Government's response, particularly the arrest of 52 Hindu youths, claiming the actions unfairly targeted their community. They demanded compensation for the shop owners affected by the arson and called for the immediate release of the detained youths.

"If the Government continues this biased approach, we will be forced to revolt and stage larger protests in the district," the activists warned. BJP leader Belagola Suneel, Hindu Jagaran Vedike's Chandan, and other leaders from various pro-Hindu organisations participated in the demonstration.

National Lok Adalat begins

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (BLU&DM)- The Third National Lok Adalat of 2024 began this morning in city Courts and across the district under the auspices of the National Legal Services Authority, Karnataka Legal Services Authority and Mysuru District Legal Services Authority (DLSA).

This nationwide event is simultaneously taking place in all States and Union Territories to expedite dispute resolution and improve access to justice.

The Lok Adalat provides a platform to settle both pre-litigation and pending cases, including compoundable offences, plea bargaining, revenue disputes, bank recovery cases, motor accident claims, cheque bounce issues, labour disputes, matrimonial and domestic cases, land acquisition matters, intellectual property, consumer complaints, and other civil cases.

In the Mysuru district, the Lok Adalat is being held across 66 Courts, with 44 located in the city. Current statistics reveal a backlog of 1,17,013 cases in the City and Taluk Courts, of which 58,030 are civil cases and 58,983 are criminal cases. The DLSA has identified more than 30,000 cases that can be resolved through mediation, counselling and mutual agreement.

As a statutory alternative dispute resolution mechanism, the Lok Adalat provides an expeditious, cost-effective solution to settling disputes. Its awards are final and binding on all parties involved.

Congress blames BJP, JD(S), RSS

Mysuru, Sept. 14 (BLU&BS)- KPCC Spokesperson M. Lakshmana has accused the BJP, JD(S) and RSS of orchestrating the violence that erupted during the Ganesha idol procession in Nagamangala, Mandya district, on Sept. 11.

Addressing media personnel at Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan on JLB Road in Mysuru on Friday, Lakshmana called the incident a 'premeditated act' by these groups.

He stated that Home Minister Dr. Parameshwar will soon reveal evidence exposing the conspiracy behind the communal unrest. Lakshmana claimed that a similar plot was attempted during the Ganesha procession in Mysuru, but the Congress Government prevented it.

Criticising BJP State President B.Y. Vijayendra and Opposition Leader R. Ashok for making inflammatory remarks during their visit to Nagamangala, Lakshmana demanded that the two leaders be booked under the Goonda Act.

Additionally, Lakshmana cited 757 communal clashes that occurred during the BJP's rule in Karnataka, resulting in the deaths of 21 youths.

Thathaiah was loved by children and he led by the adage, "Practice before you preach" by admitting his own wife to Primary School for learning and thereby inviting the girls and young women to join schools and thus revolutionise the Literacy Movement.

Some of the products of Anathalaya, who have risen in society to occupy esteemed positions, are C. Narasimhamurthy, an IAS Officer, Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa, novelist, Dr. H.C. Mrutyunjaya, research scholar, C.V. Gopinath, Dr. G. Ramakrishna, thinker and a professor of English, Dr. H.G. Udayshankar of Prashamani Hospital, Raghavendra Hegde, sand artist, Dr. Gurumurthy, Nuclear Scientist from BARC & RMP and N.V. Dinesh, educationist.

The administration of Anathalaya is led by C.V. Gopinath, N.V. Dinesh, Dr. N. Suresh, Dr. S. Murali, Dr. N. Sriram, Dr. Sathyanarayana, H. Ashwathnarayana, a Class 1 Civil Contractor, R. Thathaiah Memorial Lecture series, organised for the personality development of the students, have attracted many scholars in various fields to Anathalaya. Nutritious food, lodging facilities and above all, the disciplined life imbibed by students as well as learning the traditional scriptures, apart from their subject studies, have been the hallmark of The Anathalaya activities over the last few years.

Avant BKG Hospitals brings advanced heart care to Mysuru

First MitraClip valve repair procedure performed

Mysuru, Sept. 14- Avant BKG Hospitals, located at Bogadi, Mysuru, has successfully completed its 'first MitraClip valve repair procedure,' a revolutionary treatment for patients suffering from mitral valve regurgitation.

The procedure was led by the Hospital's Chief Interventional Cardiologist, Dr. Rajagopal Jambunathan, marking a significant breakthrough in cardiac care for the city of Mysuru and the State of Karnataka.

Mitral regurgitation, a condition characterised by the leaking of the mitral valve, is one of the leading causes of heart failure. Traditionally, this condition has been treated through open-heart surgery, which poses significant risks, especially for patients with weakened hearts.

The MitraClip offers a minimally invasive alternative by repairing the valve via a small puncture in the groin, significantly reducing recovery time and the risk of complications.

Avant BKG Hospitals is among the few in Karnataka equipped with the technology and expertise to perform this procedure.

Addressing the media at the Hospital premises recently, Dr. Rajagopal Jambunathan stated, "This ground-breaking procedure is a game-changer for patients with heart failure caused by mitral valve regurgitation. The MitraClip allows us to effectively seal the valve leakage without the need for open-heart surgery, improving patient outcomes and recovery times. We are proud to be the first in Mysuru to bring this advanced technology."

The hospital's state-of-the-art Cath Lab, equipped with cutting-edge technology, has made such advanced procedures possible. The facility also offers the first 4D Echo Cardiogram and 4D Transesophageal Echo in the city, further enhancing diagnostic and treatment capabilities.

Dr. T.N. Balakrishna Gowda, Managing Director & Chief Orthopaedic & Robotic Joint Replacement Surgeon, Avant BKG Hospitals, said, "This is a proud moment for our hospital at Mysuru. Our commitment to offering the latest medical advancements ensures that our patients receive world-class care without having to travel to bigger cities. The successful completion of the MitraClip procedure highlights our team's expertise and our hospital's dedication to improving cardiac care in city and in the State."

Dr. Adarsh, Chief Anaesthetist and Dr. Vanitha, Non-Invasive Cardiologist, were the key members of the team that performed the procedure.
